Yesterday Is Warm In Our Minds

Yesterday is combination of many days filled with emotion. To each person it means something different and perhaps something special. But in the minds of those who shared its events, Yesterday is only a memory of Today.

There were happy days filled with learning, laughter, spirit, and fun. There were also long days filled with worry, frustration, and anxiety. Spirit and fun filled the day of the football game. Pep rallies built up spirit, which continued until the last touchdown, whether it was by our team or by the opponents. There was the dread and worry on report card day. There were days of impatience before a long awaited prom or other special event. Lastly there was, for some, that frantic, joyful day of graduation which ended a high school career at McCollum.

To Anne, for wishing you
 the best of luck
 in the future,
 Marjorie Carson
 Junior 10-21

Memories Influence Our Tomorrows

Our experiences of Yesterday have helped us to build a better tomorrow. Through our failures we can appreciate the satisfaction of success. By setting goals and working towards them, we can feel the happiness of accomplishment. Our acceptance of problems and responsibilities have helped us grow into mature adults. Each day our experiences affect our personalities and characters.

Our experiences at McCollum have played a large part in developing our characters. Our principals, counselors, and teachers have touched our lives to help create the kind of people McCollum can be proud of now and always.

Active Students Represent

A high school education usually brings to mind academic learning. However, without extracurricular activities one's education is not complete. Such activities are unsurpassed in promoting one's social development and in strengthening character and leadership qualities. These students represent the many extracurricular activities which inspire and create school spirit and pride.

In Marketing And Distribution

The McCollum Chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America is an organization designed to develop leadership and promote social activities. The purpose of the organization is to promote respect for education in marketing and distribution and to further the students understanding and appreciation of the competitive enterprise system.

Distributive Education is a two-year vocational program for juniors and seniors which teaches retailing, wholesaling and service selling. Students receive two regular course credits for classes which they attend during the morning, and three credits for classroom phase of D.E. In the afternoon, D.E. students work at their jobs.

The Cowboy Corral Cadettes, better known as the Tri-C's, is an organization with many purposes planned to benefit McCollum and each girl individually. Several purposes include the expansion of each member's personality to her fullest potential and the development of school spirit through participation in school sponsored activities. Some activities attended range from football games in the fall to basketball, volley ball, and baseball games during the rest of the school year. Several social services included in 1969-70 were ushering for programs at various schools, at Hemisfair, and for the A & M Singing Cadettes, selling poppies for the Veterans of Foreign War, and entertaining at nursing homes.

Members attend Tri-C's for a regular period during the school day for which each girl receives one high school credit in Physical Education.

In order to be eligible for Tri-C's, candidates must have passed all subjects the semester prior to election and must maintain a fairly high scholastic average throughout the year as members. New members are selected in January and May of each year.

March begins workshops for the various positions able to be held in the organization. Try-outs follow the practice weeks and those best qualified are announced at the annual Green and Gold Prom as the following year's leaders.

Drum Major Has Full Time Job

The McCollum Cowboy Varsity Band starts taking shape in early August when marching practice begins. Members then get to cool off from their daily evening workout at the annual swimming party held at the Paton Heights pool.

From the beginning of September to late November, the band learns and practices various halftime shows which prepares them for University Interscholastic League Marching Contest on November 13. This year the band made a first division in both marching and inspection.

Individual band members entered U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble Contest in which 66 first place medals were won.

On March 20, the group went to U.I.L. Concert Contest and made second divisions in playing and in sight reading.

This year the band was a "feature band" at the Battle of the Bands. They marched in the Battle of Flowers parade and this year, for the first time, they also marched in the Fiesta Flambeau parade.

The band's main function is its participation in football halftime entertainment and its help in encouraging spirit at pep rallies. In addition to its many other activities, the band plays for R.O.T.C. at various times throughout the year.

The 1969-70 drum major is Tommy Roe. He was selected by 3 impartial judges out of 3 other contestants. As Drum Major, Tommy carries an extremely heavy load. In addition to assisting Mr. Parnell in drilling the band in its routines and leading the band during halftime shows and parades, he must maintain discipline in all band students while still receiving their respect

Majorettes Win Costume Award

Three Receive High Band Honors

Terry Pedrotti, Billy McLunkins, Johnny Standridge, Tommy Burkholder, Anne Johnson, and Jane Hertel earned their membership in the All-District Band.

Anne Johnson, Johnny Standridge, and Jane Hertel, after many long hours of practicing their music, placed in the All Regional Band. Johnny and Jane qualified for the Area Band try-outs.

Lettermen Return To Lead Team

McCollum returning lettermen are, Butch Barbieri, Jesse Alvarado, Skippy Hajek, Tony Capps, Sam Pack, Pat Felix, Bruce Vettors, and Phillip Vineyard

McCollum opened the season with a loss to Alamo Heights. The Mules were quick to get on the score board in the first quarter. The Cowboys came back with Tony Capps fumbling into the end zone and Wayne Pape falling on the ball for the score, to end a 57-yard drive. A pass from Bruce Vettors to Boyd Chessman put McCollum ahead 8 to 7. Alamo Heights came back in the next series to get ahead 13-8

In the fourth quarter, Alamo Heights came on to glide for another touchdown.

With 15 seconds left in the game, a Mule recovered a knocked loose pass from David Pack. Heights scored from the five-yard line to end the game.

Hector Torrez holds on as Joe Stair closes in on Heights ball carrier.

Defense Shows Determination

McCollum's Defense are Butch Barbieri, Tony Capps, Todd Williamson, Boyd Chessman, Skippy Hajek, Pat Felix, Robert Hickman, Joe Stair, Sam Pack, Philip Vineyard, and Ray Click

Todd Williamson rounds corner enroute to gain yardage against Austin.

After losing the first two games, the Cowboys picked up their pride and walked over Austin Lanier defeating them 22-6.

The scoring started off with the hard running of Tony Capps and Boyd Chessman and ended with the passing arm of Todd Williamson.

The first score came as Tony Capps bulled his way in from the five-yard line to end a 22-yard drive for a touchdown. Williamson passed to Chessman for the 2 points.

Austin's lone score was from the 19-yard line with a reverse. Austin's try for extra points failed.

The Cowboys scored all their points in the second and fourth quarters.

Offense Breaks Scoring Record

McCollum's Offense are Pat Felix, Butch Barbieri, Sam Pack, Robert Hickman, Tony Capps, Bruce Vettters, Bill Jones, Boyd Chessman, Freddie Flores, Wayne Pape, and Joe Stair.

McCollum, attempting to break a bad luck streak, also fell to Marshall. Marshall's defense scored all the points for the Rams.

The bad luck started in the first quarter when both teams lost a pair of fumbles. Then as Tony Capps was attempting to punt the ball, the snap went array. He had to fall on the ball in the end zone for a safety.

Then the Rams intercepted a pass on the McCollum 30 and raced in for the game's first touchdown.

The second and third quarters were fought to a draw for both teams. McCollum almost scored in the second quarter when Boyd Chessman, driving to the one yard line, fumbled the ball into the end zone. Marshall scored their last touchdown when they returned a punt.

Bruce Vettters drives for needed yardage against John Marshall

Matadors Topple Cowboy Team

Tommy Walker bulldogs Seguin quarterback.

McCollum, being heavily out-weighted and not as speedy as the Seguin Matadors, made up for it with the passing arm of Todd Williamson. It seemed to many that McCollum just ran out of time because the first quarter was fought well by both teams and only one touchdown was scored. But during the second quarter, the running of All-American Cleveland Vann seemed to be too much for the Cowboys. The Matadors scored 27 points in the second quarter to go in at halftime with a 34 point lead.

The Cowboys came out passing in the third quarter with Williamson completing 16 out of 44 passes for 202 yards and two touchdowns. The Cowboys scored twice with 34 and 21 seconds to go making the final score 40-22.

The Cowboys were led by the hard running of T. Capps and B. Chessman. Together they picked up 205 yards.

The Cowboys scored late in the first quarter with T. Williamson running in from the eight-yard line and then pitching to S. Hajek for the 2 points.

The second McCollum score came with Chessman capping an 83-yard drive to make the score 14-0. A pass from Williamson to D. Pack made the score 16-0.

Cowboys Lose Hope For District

P. Felux attempts to catch a pass.

The McCollum hopes of becoming the 1969 district champions were darkened by a loss to Sam Houston.

During the first quarter, Sam Houston jumped out to a 14-point lead. During the second quarter, the passing of T. Williamson became too much of a challenge for the Cherokees. Williamson threw to B. Chessman for a 13-yard score and then to P. Felux for the two extra points. McCollum got the ball after a Houston punt and drove to the five-yard line with Williamson running over tying up the score.

The third quarter injury to T. Capps and B. Chessman took the punch out of the Cowboy offense and the Cherokees took over by scoring one touchdown in the third quarter and two in the last.

B. Chessman scores second touchdown and the Cowboys go ahead by 14 points over the Indians.

The Cowboys dream was shattered as McCollum went for their third straight victory over Harlandale and tied.

The Cowboys started out with a pitch out from T. Williamson to B. Chessman. The pitch out ended up being a 73-yard run as Chessman danced his way from the 27-yard line to the Indian end zone. It wasn't long until McCollum got the ball again and drove 75 yards in 15 plays ending with a 22-yard pass to D. Ayala, putting the Cowboys ahead by 14 points.

As the Cowboys became a little over-confident, the Indians scored two quick touchdowns. During the third and fourth quarters, there were threats of scoring by both teams. McCollum did score in the fourth quarter only to have it called back because of a penalty.

Underclassmen Look To Future

The McCollum B-team will hopefully be varsity team members next year. This year they had stiff competition, according to Coaches M. Dresch and J. Czar, but they completed their season with five wins and four losses.

The McCollum freshman football team ended the 1969-70 football season with a record of one win, one tie, and five losses.

Instructors Teach Volleyball,

The girls in the Physical Education classes participate in a game of volleyball as one of their various activities.

Water Safety, Swimming Skills

McCollum's Physical Education students are offered one to two units of swimming instruction each year. A unit class is from four to six weeks. Various levels of swimming are taught, but classes are composed primarily of beginners. Upon completion of the course, participants can earn a Red Cross Swimming Card for the level of their ability.

Swimming instructors are required to have a W.S.I.C. (Water Safety Instruction Certification). Those teaching the course are Miss D. Williams, Miss J. Becker, and Mrs. R. Wayland.

Miss D. Williams instructs her fifth period P.E. class on the different skills involved in being a good swimmer.

Swimmer comes up for air.

Tennis Team Takes First In

McCollum's girls' tennis team, headed by Miss J. Becker, begins its season with practice starting New Year's Day through May 1. Practice is held every day after school for two hours as well as on Saturdays. In February, the team competed in the San Pedro tournament.

Games began in March with matches played twice a week. The team won all of their matches except for one, which was lost to Holmes. The girls' doubles won first place in district 29AAAA and went on to regional competition on Apr. 24 and 25.

T. Hahn, manager, and J. Becker, coach, discuss plans.

Tennis team members are, standing, V. Almendarez, R. Coffee, M. Fuentes, J. Wilson, A. Pacheco, D. Perkins, and J. Eberhardt. Seated are T. Hahn, C. Swerc, T. Bonughi, and E. Galle.

Almost immediately after football season ends, basketball season begins. Mike Miller (Above) makes a lay up look easy at the South San Tournament.

Santa Claus Spreads Joy

For everything there is a season and Christmas is a season of joy and happiness. The holiday spirit is expressed in the beauty of music and the colorful decorations. The holiday is also expressed in the faces of little children as they dream about Santa Claus. And of course it is expressed in the faces of students as they dream about the holidays.

As Christmas Spirit Soars

At top, Student Council displays nativity scene to increase the holiday spirit of loving and giving. Laura Hicks, left, conveniently forgets that work needs to be done during the Tri-C Christmas Skit. Above, the first two of more than one hundred presents are put under the Christmas tree to be delivered to orphans.

Lettermen Stand Proudly While

Yesterday . . .

. . . is but a Dream.
And Tomorrow is only a Vision!
But Today well lived
Makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!
